Stay Clean and Save Money

In addition to health benefits, automatic hand towel dispensers are great from a financial perspective, too. Automatic dispensers regulate how much paper is given to each user, often reducing the total amount used. This means that you will consume fewer paper towels, saving money and materials.

- Eliminates cross-contamination
- Adjustable length and time settings
- Controls usage and reduces costs
- Less maintenance, more labor savings
- Never-out stub roll feature
- Motion-activated, free of cranks and levers
